

Building Update

Thursday, November 13, 2008

There will be a congregational update at the worship services on Sunday, Nov. 16.

We are currently working with an architect to evaluate different concepts. After evaluating our concepts, the building committee and Elder Board will work together to present a master plan to the congregation.